Class Structure

- We will be using zoom for our lecture on every Monday and Wednesday
 - at 8:45 am for lecture part A (45min)
 - at 9:45am for lecture part B (45min),
 - 12:15 pm for lab (1:15 h)

Class Structure

- Asking question during the lecture
 - If you want to ask a question during the lecture, please use the chat feature in zoom. I will try to keep an eye on the chat and respond as soon as possible.
 - I will also give time to ask questions between breaks and at the end of the lecture
- Show everyone else the same respect as you would if you were interacting with them in their home (which you likely are given that we are under stay-at-home recommendations).

Assessments

- Quizzes (30%)
 - six quizzes (online on D2L)
 - We will count the best 5
- Assignments (70%)
 - Five individual assignments
 - All are equally weighted.
- See the corresponding sections in D2L for more details

Labs

- Labs will start from Monday, June 28
- For every tutorial, you will be split in two groups/Breakout rooms.
 - Every TA will be in each Breakout room to answer your question
 - I will also be available to answer your question

Academic misconduct

- You should not look or submit solutions to the assignment problems that does not belong to you.
- You are required to cite all sources of information that you use
- Don't share your solution neither ask student to share their solution.
- You may talk to each other about assignments, but you must write up your answer individually
- Academic misconduct is taken very seriously. You can be expelled the university.
- See misconduct in your course outline for more details
